Colonel Alvin R. Lubker SAFETY & EDUCATION CENTER

COME LEARN ABOUT THE HIGHWAY PATROL!

When you visit, you'll see five historic patrol vehicles on display. Learn about the 1931 Ford Model A Roadster, 1942 Chevrolet, 1953 Chevrolet, 1959 Dodge, 1978 Mercury, and two motorcycles. Other historical exhibits include law enforcement antiques, such as locks and keys from various county jails, handcuffs, and objects of every description that could be used as weapons in the wrong hands.

A display pays tribute to Sergeant Benjamin O. Booth and Sheriff Roger Wilson and tells the story of their murders in 1933. Sgt. Booth was the first trooper to die in the line of duty. Another special display serves as a tribute to all the troopers who have made the Ultimate Sacrifice.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Colonel Alvin R. Lubker Safety & Education Center, and encourage you to take photos when you visit.
