

Women's Leadership Institute

In partnership with Missouri State Highway Patrol, Springfield Police Department and Branson Police Department

Branson, Missouri August 2-7, 2015

The IACP Training and Professional Services Division, with funding from Motorola, proudly introduces a new leadership certification program, the Women's Leadership Institute (WLI). The WLI program is a 40 hour course, focused on the unique challenges facing women leaders in law enforcement. To develop current and future leaders, the curriculum focuses on enhancing the business, leadership, and personal effectiveness skills of female leaders.

This interactive program uses senior women instructors and mentors from United States and Canadian law enforcement agencies and operates in an intensive, experiential learning environment. It is open to female and male, sworn and non-sworn personnel serving in supervisory positions, and senior patrol officers aspiring to become supervisors.

Institute Curriculum includes:

- Individual Differences
- Motivating Success
- Leading Teams, Organizations and Change
- Crucial Conversations and Counseling
- Strategic Career Planning
- Fair, Impartial & Ethical Policing
- Understanding Stakeholders
- Leadership and Wellness
- Financial Management
- Networking and Mentorship

Presented in partnership with the regional agencies, WLI sessions begin Sunday evening and conclude early afternoon Friday. Total tuition for the Institute is $1,200 and includes both basic tuition fees and select mandatory meals incorporated into the Institute.

Training venue and lodging will be located at the Hilton Promenade at Branson Landing and the Branson Convention Center, Branson, MO where a room block and training venue have been negotiated by the IACP.

Registration for this course cannot be accomplished online. To register or for more information, please contact Laura Renenger at 703-836-6767 x274 / renenger@theiacp.org.
